AGRICULTURAL ASSOCIATION.

THE Fifth Annual Fair of the Southern Cent, ral Agricultural Association, will beheld during the week embracing Wednesday, the 14th day of August next, which is the day of the fifth annual meeting at Atlanta Georgis

The Committee charged with the duty of prescribing such general rates as they may deem necessary to a proper management of the approaching Pair, have adopted the following General Requestrous.

Ist The Fair Grounds and Buildings will be opened for visitors on Monday morning, and continue open until Friday evening. It is therefore desirable that all persons having articles for exhibition, shall be on the ground as early as Friday or Saturday, the 9th and 10th August when a Committee will be there ready to receive them.

2d. The Association has an ample fund, and will, in all cases, become responsible for the safe-keeping of articles which may be placed in the hands of its officers and committees, (the owner taking a check for the same.) until the close of the Fair, which will be announced beforehand, in ample time to officers and committees, (the owner taking a check for the same.) until the close of the Fair, which will be announced beforehand, in ample time to officers and committees, (the owner taking a check for the same.) until the close of the Fair, which will be announced beforehand, in ample time to officers and committees, (the owner taking a check for the proposed the following papers were read by Prof. Johnson, in explanation of the Appointment and duties of the committee:

bin. It is desirable to make the Fair a Central Southern Agricultural and Manufacturers Exchange We request individuals who have a surplus of choice articles, or who make them for sale—such as choice seeds, machines, stock, &c—to carry them there for sale, and not alone for exhibition for hen there for safe, and not alone for exhibition for a premium.

7th. Premiums,—It is impossible to name in a notice like this all, the various articles to which premiums will be granted. However comprehensive we might make any enumerated list there would shill be many articles of merit offered which would not be unbraced in it, and yet richly deserving occumums, lest therefore the announcement of premiums for particular articles might be construed by miums for particular articles might be construed by an exclusion of all articles unannounced. niums for particular articles might be construed by ometolo an exclusion of all articles unannounced, the Committee requests the people generally to sherve, that it is intended to give the action of the Association the very widest scope, embracing overy thing that is ingenious or useful in business or art. All then, with whatever they have for sale exhibition, are invited to come. The only gulation further necessary on this point pernaps, that, on all articles of the highest merit in the is, that, on all articles of the highest merit in the tapartment of Stock, Mechanics, Agricultural Implements, and valuable improvements or inventions in any of the departments, a premium of a cup worth § 10 will be given; on the second best articles a cup worth § 5 will be given, on the third best § 2.50; on the fourth an honor. And on all articles of the highest merit in the remaining depart ments a cup worth § 5 will be given; on the second best § 2.50; on the third an honor; on the fourth, 12d honor. On mucr and miscellaneous articles, in premiums from one to three dollars—these, however, are general regulations, and in particular case or cases of peculiar merit the committees will be permitted, indeed are requested, to vary the rule. Sth. A hall will be prepared and assigned particularly to the Ladies for their garden products, the state of the second products.

point induce us to invite, and to expect the pre-sence and contributions of many of our fellow citizens of Carolina, Alabama, Tennessee and Flo-rida. We hope they will unite with us in making this institution indeed, what it is in name, a Southern Central Agricultural Association.

Central Agricultural Association.

10th. The President upon a consultation with such members as he can call to his aid, shall appoint committees and assign to them their respective departments, and to these committees so appointed the committee of reception shall furnish lists of the articles classed and arranged in their respective departments. In order to the perfection of this arrangement, the committee appointed to publish these regulations, will here repeat, and enjoin upon all to take notice that articles for exhibition may be received and arranged on Friday and Saturday the 9th and 10th of August, so that when the President shall appoint his committees on Monday morning, the committee of reception may have their lists of articles, and the several committees proceed at once to the examination of articles.

Monday morning, the committee of reception may have their lists of articles, and the several committees proceed at once to the examination of articles, and thereby have ample time to make their reports to the annual meeting or Wednesday. Thursday will be devoted to save the react of each continuing the whole time.

11th. Any alterations of, or addition to the foregoing rules, will be published at \(\frac{1}{2}\) Monday morning of the Fair week.

12th. The annual oration will be not Wednesday, the day of the Anniversary may g, immediately preceding the reports of committees, by Col. John Billups, of Athens, Georgia.

13th. The Committee have the prospect of making arrangements with the Macon, State and Georgia Railroads, to run accommodation carsearly every morning and late in the afternoon, to Griffin. Marietta, Stone Mountain, and Decatur, to give issions the opportunity of the accommodations of the good Hotels at those places while in attendance upon the Fair.

14th. The citizens of Atlanta have provided comfortable quarters for Committees and Officers, and others engaged in the laborious ousiness of the fair.

and others engaged in the laborious business of the fatr.

15th. The Secretary is directed to publish these regulations in the Cellinarious, and to procure as firr as practicable their publication in the weekly papers of this and the adjoining States.

Premiums to New Subscribers.

Owing to the late revolutions and counter-revolutions among the entions of Europe, which have followed each other in quick succession, and of which the "end is not yet." The leading periodicals of Great Britain have become invested with a degree of interest hitherto unknown. They occupy a middle ground between the hasty, disjointed, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspapers, and the claborate and ponderous treatises to be furnished by the historian at a future day. The American Publishers, therefore, deam it proper to call renewed attention to these Periodicals, and the very low price at which they are offered to subscribers. The following is their list, viz:
